Some merchants make efforts when they do not need to, and make no effort when effort is absolutely necessary.

VOL. 17 VICTORIA, B. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1892. NO. 89

IF THE PUBLIC ARE FAIRLY AND FAITHFULLY DEALT WITH ✠ ✠

They will soon come to find it out; this I've discovered with gratifying results and am now making matters look cerulean for all competitors.

The last two weeks' trade has been uprecedented in my business (for its volume), and the full trade has blown in with a rush. The Stock I've got in this season is unrivalled; the choicest products from the mills of the most noted manufacturers are here and bought with good money.

OH! ITS FUNNY WHAT MONEY WILL DO ✠ ✠ ✠ ✠ ✠ ✠

To say that I lead them all as regards Styles and Values is tame. In small boy vernacular "I can stuff the knockin' out o' 'em."

All-wool Trousers for workmen's wear, from $5 up to most elaborate English and French Worsteds that ever encased a gentleman's leg. The real West of England Trouserings from $10 per pair up.

English, Scotch and Irish Serge and Tweed Suitings in the newest and most appropriate shades and weights for this season, from $28 up.

UP AND DOWN! DOWN AND UP!

Overcoatings in Beavers, Venetians, Vicunas, Meltons and Naps—Silk and Satin lined from $50 down.

Are you going shooting? Get a pair of my Bedford Cord Trousers. The pheasants will fly toward the muzzle of your gun. No need for a dog. Are you going riding? The Breeches I make will show off your manly form to the best advantage.

My Stock is Complete, my Prices are Right, Competition is distanced, Styles are Faultless. Every garment personally inspected and guaranteed perfect. If you want anything more let me know, as I study to please, and will keep up with the age we live in.

The Hebrews of New York Begin the Columbian Festivities With Public Worship.

The French Warships Arrive Safe and are Welcomed—Good News From the Rio Grande.

Contraband Chinese Caught in Vermont—A Southern Corps Regains Its Colors.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The Columbian celebration was virtually commenced to-day by the Jewish people of New York, who held, in the various synagogues, special services in commemoration of Christopher Columbus and his discovery of his adopted land. The places of worship were decorated for the occasion and the choirs sang extra music, and the doctors of divinity delivered appropriate sermons.

Contraband Chinese Caught.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Oct. 8.—Two heavily veiled persons clothed in women's garb were driven across the line from Canada yesterday by Carlan Worth, and to all appearances they were respectable country folk travelling from one town to the other. Deputy Sheriff Porter of Caledonia county did not like the looks of the rig. The women sat too stiffly and there was too little communication between them, so he overhauled the turnout, asked the driver who he was and who his passengers were. He said he knew nothing about his passengers except that they were French women he had been hired to carry to St. Johnsbury. Deputy Sheriff Porter was hunting for the Chinese underground railroad which has been in active operation of late, and he needed no further evidence that the right clue had been struck at last. He jerked the veils from the faces of the supposed women and two badly frightened Chinamen were exposed. They jabbered in their unintelligible language, but Worth said nothing. The three men were arrested. There has been an extensive traffic in Chinamen who came within the restrictions of the Chinese expulsion act, in the past few months, and the "conductors" have grown rich in the illegal business. Contractors have been paying from $20 to $100 a head for transferring Chinamen across the line, and a steady train of these immigrants has been pouring into this country across the Vermont border. Yesterday's arrest will check the traffic for a time.

Regained Their Old Colors.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 8.—The survivors of the North Carolina Grays assembled to-day at Cedar Fork to receive again the flag presented to them in May, 1861, but afterwards captured by the 28th Ohio regiment. Since the war the flag has been in the possession of Col. Hoggins, who commanded the 28th Ohio, and at his request to-day Mrs. Fannie Lyon Lowe, who, as Miss Lyon, originally presented the colors, returned them to the survivors. Lieut. Gunter received them, and Major R. W. Work, commander of the Grays, delivered a historical address. The roll was then called for the last time. Dinner was served by the people of the town, after which the flag was given to the state by Major Work in behalf of the citizens. It was accepted by Governor Holt through Col. Harrell, quartermaster general. This ceremony was followed by addresses by many of the veterans of both armies, Confederates and Federals.

A Wolf in Sheep's Clothing.

FLORENCE, Ala., Oct. 8.—Elder Wilson, editor of the Christian Home, and pastor of the Christian church in Iron county, Tenn., has been detected stealing and turned out of the church. Wilson went to Iron City last May. He was in reduced circumstances and his health was poor. When it was learned that he was a preacher, the people gave him general assistance and afterwards installed him in the pulpit of Christian church. Through the benevolence of his parishoners he was enabled to engage in several worldly enterprises, and among other things had an interest in a grocery store. His partner in the grocery had been missing cash for some time and began to investigate, which finally led to the arrest of the pastor, who confessed that he stole the money.

France at the Fete.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The French men-of-war to take part in the naval parade festivities next week, arrived at quarantine this morning and at once proceeded up the bay. They were given the customary salute of 21 guns from Fort Wadsworth and the cruiser Philadelphia, which had been detailed to be on the lookout for them. The French vessels are the Arethuse and Hussard. The Arethuse is the flagship of the North American squadron and is commanded by Admiral Bevier. She has on board Rear Admiral Dabel de Lebran. She carries 24 guns. The Hussard is a wooden vessel, bark rigged, and carries four 5½ inch guns, and four Gatling guns, and is under the command of Capt. Krantz.

Down on the Rio Grande.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 8.—The lower Rio Grande, the border country of Texas, which for four years has suffered from the worst drought ever known, is now being flooded with water, rain having fallen heavily during the past three weeks. The grass has sprung up throughout the whole section and cattle are fattening rapidly. Ranchmen are again stocking their ranches and ranchers are jubilant over the prospects.

His Real Name.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 8.—Dale Emmet, who with his supposed wife and three children was killed by lightning in his house one night last July, was a forger, it has just been learned. His real name was David Scoot Booz, and the woman was the wife of an Ohio man named John A. Tomer, to whom the children also belonged. Mrs. Tomer deserted her husband five years ago because he abused her.

The Same Old Game.

MASON CITY, Ia., Oct. 8.—A man calling himself M. O'Connor, and representing himself to be an agent for the sale of improved farm lands, has swindled a number of persons in this city.

THE ROYAL CITY.

Artillery and Rifle Competitions—Health Committee Will Wait Developments.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 8.—The banquet at the Queen's hotel last night to the visiting delegates of the Ancient Order of Foresters was a grand affair. About 70 sat down and a most enjoyable time was spent. The Victoria delegates, Messrs. Wallace, McKenzie and Salmon expressed themselves delighted with the hospitality.

The Ferndale base ball team arrived this morning and a match is proceeding at Queen's Park.

The annual class firing match of the B.C.G.A. started this morning. The Rifle Association team is also competing for the Fleming cup.

The tug Velos was sold at auction by the sheriff and bought by J. Hendry for $4500.

Bonner and Roome have been removed to the penitentiary to serve their three years.

The health committee will take no action to enforce the provincial health laws until they see what the government commission will do.

VANCOUVER NEWS.

The Trades and Labor Council Enquire About the Poll Tax.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 8.—The Rugby football club re-organized for the season last night with A. St. G. Hamersley, president; C. H. Woodward, secretary; J. Laurenson, captain; and R. M. Fripp and McIvor Campbell delegates to the Provincial Rugby union. This year's club will be stronger than that of last year.

A. C. Trudell has been elected president of the Clerks' association; A. Shragge, secretary; and J. Sloan, treasurer. A ball will be given in the market hall on October 19th.

The Trades and Labor Council will ask the city council to publish the names of those who paid the poll tax in 1892, and that the individual be asked for the tax before it is demanded of the employer.

Fifteen candidates will be confirmed in Christ Church to-morrow.

A. G. Ferguson announces that he will build a large hotel near the proposed terminus of the B. I. and F. V. Railway in the east end of the city.

A Chinese prostitute was fined $30 in the police court to-day.

Arbitrators who are busy on the Westminster avenue extension, sat yesterday and to-day, but have not finished their labors.

The steamship Cutch ran ashore to the west of the city wharf in a fog this morning on arriving from Nanaimo. She cannot be got off till high water to-night.

The match between two draymen's teams for $75 a side comes off this afternoon.

Father Fay severed his connection with the Roman Catholic church today, and after spending a fortnight in Victoria will leave for Scotland. Father Fayard succeeds him.

ONE MORE DEATH.

Smallpox Claims Another Victim at Nanaimo—Texada's Favored Isle.

NANAIMO, Oct. 8.—McGibbons, the man who came to the city suffering from smallpox, died yesterday morning. He had been sinking for the past few days and the physician at the pest house gave no hopes of his recovery. The death has caused quite an alarm among the suspects, who now wish they were out of their present position. This leaves no cases in the district, and the suspects are all well.

It is reported that Mr. Sutherland, on behalf of a few American capitalists, has made a very advantageous offer to the Texada Gold and Silver Mining Company for their claims on the island. A meeting of the company will take place as soon as the members who are now away, return, and then it will be put to them. There is every reason to believe the transaction will be completed.

The survey party which has been out all the summer surveying the E. & N. boundary line have completed the work laid down for them this summer. The party got as far as Crown Mountain, and state the country is very rough. Next year they will go from the mountain toward the coast. The party passed through to Victoria to-day.

A gentleman now visiting Nanaimo claims, if there were a few pushing business men in the city it would not take long before it would surpass all the other cities in the province. Some one remarked there were only the coal mines to depend upon. He replied:—"Other cities have not got a coal mine, or they would be so far ahead that it would be impossible for this city to catch up to them." He is delighted with the scenery here and thinks it could be made a very pretty city if a little care was taken in the erection of the buildings.

The good-will of the Occidental Hotel is to be sold under a mortgage. The affairs of the late proprietor are found to be in a very bad condition, and when the private accounts are totalled up they will be found to exceed $10,000. Some of the small creditors will not receive a cent. Decker is now in Seattle, where it is to be hoped he will remain.

NON-INTERFERENCE BEST.

The Toronto Empire Advises Both Parties to Keep Cool on the School Question.

The Orange Lodges of New Brunswick Condemn the Blair Administration.

Ontario College of Physicians and Surgeons Swoops Down on Keely Fakirs.

TORONTO, Oct. 8.—The Empire says this morning in an editorial on the Manitoba school case: The only safe ground which can be taken by the Dominion in regard to the legislation of provinces on subjects committed to them by the Confederation Act, and which is kept within their rights under the constitution, is that of non-interference. That was the doctrine laid down when it was sought to get the Dominion to interfere with Quebec in the matter of the Jesuits estate act, and despite the strong feeling of the Protestant population, that stand was properly adhered to. Now, in turn, our Roman Catholic friends are pressing for interference, but if they will stop to consider it, they will see that the same rule is a proper one in their case also, and that to break away from it opens possibilities which they would probably be the first to deplore. Instead of seeking for redress in a quarter where the difficulties in the way are practically insurmountable they should turn to the province which has power to deal with them there, and we have faith enough in the people of any of our provinces to believe that when the excitement calms down, if a genuine case of injustice is made out, Protestants as well as Roman Catholics will eventually see that the injustice is not perpetuated.

After the Keeleyites.

TORONTO, Oct. 8.—The Ontario College of Physicians and Surgeons is after the gold cure institute in Moss Park place. Father Murphy, the proprietor, was charged by the college officer and Detective Watson in the police court yesterday with practising medicine without proper qualifications. After the preliminary hearing the case was adjourned.

Electrical Storms.

BELLEVILLE, Ont., Oct. 8.—Terrible thunder and lightning storms have passed over here this week. A family named Austin, living seven miles from Frankfort, were struck by lightning and three of them were so badly injured that they died in a few hours. Many destructive fires have been reported.

Condemed Blair.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Oct. 8.—At Fredericton yesterday sixty delegates from various Orange lodges in York county held a meeting, and passed resolutions condemnatory of the Blair Government and endorsing the candidature of County Master Pitts, who had been brought out by the temperance party for that constituency.

Not Enough Money.

TORONTO, Oct. 8.—Strong complaints are made by those interested in the mineral exhibit of this Province at the World's Fair next year. It is claimed that the sum appropriated for this purpose will not make a show at all.

They've Got It Too.

MONTREAL, Oct. 8.—The mayor has issued a proclamation declaring Wednesday, the 12th, a civic holiday in honor of its being the 400th anniversary of the landing of Columbus in America.

Back to Business.

OTTAWA, Oct. 8.—Lord Stanley has returned the city from West Shore. He was duck shooting. He has taken up his residence at Rideau Hall for the winter.

Want to Remain Filthy.

BUDA-PESTH, Oct. 8.—The ignorant classes resist the efforts of the authorities to enforce sanitary measures for the extirpation of cholera. To-day the sanitary officers engaged in disinfection were set upon; first by women with boiling water, then by men and boys with stones. The mob was finally dispersed by the police.

Bound for Victoria.

HONGKONG, Oct. 8.—The C.P. Railway's steamship Empress of Japan left here this morning for Victoria.

The Cyclone in France.

PARIS, Oct. 8.—A cyclone yesterday visited the city of Chalons-sur-mer and created much havoc. Roadways were rendered impassable, a number of houses were blown down, trees prostrated, and unharvested crops levelled.

UNION HAPPENINGS.

A Survey Party's Struggle With the Snow—Increasing Coke Output.

UNION, Oct. 7.—Mr. Ralph's survey party returns to Victoria by the Joan. They have completed surveying the line between the E. & N. R. R. Co.'s and the government's lands. They have been surveying for six months. They commenced at Alberni and finished at Crown mountain, a distance of 65 miles. The line is a straight one from Muir creek to Crown mountain. It has been a very rough trip and members of the party have had some very narrow escapes in climbing the mountains. For two months they have been on a snow clad peak, trying to find some way of getting across an impassable canyon. They travelled in snow nearly all the time and were nearly snowed in on Crown mountain. The country traveled is of very little value, although some samples of ore have been brought down.

The Union Coal Company, finding the demand for their coke increasing beyond the capacity of the present oven, have decided to build another and larger oven, the material of which is on the ground. The coke has been tested in the Albion Iron Works and other foundries and pronounced of very good quality, and much cheaper than the imported article.

Mr. Roe has been appointed postmaster here. Mr. Dorman, from Inspector Fletcher's office, came up by the Joan to install him in his new position.

Inspector Burns returns by the Joan after having visited schools in Union and Comox. He reports everything satisfactory in connection with the schools.

Mr. Frank Little, manager of Union mines, has returned from Victoria. He does not state when the mines will reopen.

Mr. Noah Conzina has returned with Grant & Mounce's horse, Norman McLeod. The gallant Norman succeeded in taking first prize at Victoria as well at New Westminster.

After a lively tussle Sam Davis succeeded in killing a very large bear. Bruin showed fight, but the Winchester and a cool head were too much for him.

TENNYSON.

Poets' Tributes to the Memory of the Poet Laureate.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—Sir Edwin Arnold published the following poem in the Telegraph this morning:

No moaning of the bar. Sail forth, strong ship,
Into the gloom which has God's face for light.
No dirge, but proud farewell from each fond lip.
And praise, abounding praise—Fame's faint starlight
Lamping this tuneful soul to that large room
Where thou shalt choir with angels.
Words of woe are for the unfulfilled,
Not those whose moon of genius sinks full orbed, glorious, aglow.
No moaning of the bar;
Musical drifting of time's waves returning to the eternal sea.
Death's soft wand all thy gallant canvas lifting,
And Christ thy pilot to the peace that be.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 6.—The News this afternoon prints the following In Memoriam by James Whitcomb Riley on Tennyson:

Tennyson, England, October 6, 1892.

We of the new world clasp hands with the old,
In newer fervor and with firmer hold and nobler fellowship.
O Master singer, with the finger tip of death laid thus on thy melodious lip,
All ages thou hast honored with thine art, and in ages yet unborn thou wilt be part
Of all songs pure and true; thine now the universal homage due,
From old and new world, aye, and still the new.

THE TURF.

SUNOL'S GREAT PERFORMANCES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The Turf, Field and Farm says: On Tuesday Charles Marvin started for Lexington with Miller and Sibley's stable to fill an engagement at Lexington, Nashville and Columbia. He has taken Sunol and Arion with him. He hopes to lower the record with Sunol, and with Arion he expects to wipe out all three-year-old records. Arion and Sunol have both been suffering from colds, but are fully recovered. Marvin telegraphed on Monday after giving Sunol a mile and repeat that she is, to use his phrase, "O.K." Bonner, on a recent visit asked Marvin how fast he thought Sunol could have trotted a half mile to the bicyle sulkey. Governor Stanford timed her quarter in 19½ seconds. The reply was, "about 58 seconds," and then added, "If she only remains right, there is no telling where she will trot a mile to the new sulkey.

CANADIAN NOTES.

News by Mail and Wire From All Parts of the Dominion.

Masses will be read in all the Roman Catholic churches in Kingston on Oct. 16, in honor of Christopher Columbus.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Co., are suing the Great Northern Railway for $2000 for freight and other charges.

R. Lee, a Toronto cigar maker, has been notified that he has been left $100,000 by a deceased uncle in San Francisco.

W. Schermerhorn, of Sydney, near Belleville, has been sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for setting fire to his father's house and stable.

The new criminal code will be ready at Ottawa for distribution in about a week, and can be had on application to the Queen's Printer, at 50 cents a copy.

Lieut. Phillipe Dupperon Casgrain, of the Royal Engineers, has received a dispatch from India, announcing that he has been decorated with the medal of the Manipur campaign.

At the criminal assizes in Toronto the grand jury returned true bills against Arthur Yorke, charged with the murder of his child, and against Frank Wilson, charged with murdering his wife.

At the next meeting of the Grand Trunk Railway directorate the Board will be asked to ratify the amalgamation of fourteen lines of railway which have been recently added to the Grand Trunk system.

At Wycliffe College, Toronto, it was announced that to perpetuate the name of Robert Baldwin, the Baldwin family have decided to set apart the sum of $2000 as a foundation for a mission bursary.

H. A. Brault and A. Labreque, former managers of the Province of Quebec Lottery, has taken action against the St. Jean Baptiste Society, Montreal, claiming $50,000 damages on account of the discontinuance of their contract.

The financial statement of the Dominion for the first quarter of the present fiscal year shows that the revenue aggregates $9,314,000; expenditure, $5,773,000; surplus, $3,560,000; or nearly $600,000 greater than the surplus at the same period last year.

The choir of St. James' Church, the aristocratic Roman Catholic church in Montreal, want to be paid for singing the Mass of Expiation, called for by the mandement of last Sunday, and the members say that unless this is done the majority will not be in their places next Sunday.

A young girl employed in the hotel at Innesfail, Alberta, attempted to commit suicide by taking a dose of carbolic acid. She had been intimate with a mounted policeman stationed there, and being discovered in the intrigue, took poison. A doctor was called in time to save her life.

A very serious wreck occurred on the Glenboro branch of the C. P. R. in Manitoba, in which two men were fatally injured. One man was slightly injured and considerable rolling stock was destroyed. A bridge was burned out over a small stream by a prairie fire, and was not noticed by the engineer until it was too late. Engineer O'Donnell and Fireman Althorp were both badly injured, Althorpe being frightfully scalded. Brakeman English was also hurt. Sixteen cars were smashed.

When the train that carried Sir Henry Tyler and party east got as far as Landsdowne, near Kingston, the engine struck an old woman named DeWolfe and killed her. She was going over the track at the time and did not hear the train coming. The train ran about 150 yards before the engine driver could stop its motion. When the body was picked up it was found that her neck and an arm had been broken. The corpse was put in a baggage car and backed up to a crossing. Here it was removed to the home of the unfortunate woman on a stretcher. She was about 80 years of age.

James Slavin, alias McMahon, who is awaiting trial for the murder of Captain John R. Davey at Cornwall, made a desperate attempt to escape. When rations were being served to him by Governor McDonald and his assistant, he struck the governor with an iron bar, inflicting probably fatal injuries, and then engaged in a desperate struggle with his assistant. The noise of the struggle attracted the attention of the daughter of the governor, who summoned assistance and Slavin was recaptured. The assistant's injuries are not serious. Slavin is desperate and a strict watch will be kept on him.

Warmly Welcomed.

DUBLIN, Oct. 7.—The appearance of the new viceroy, Lord Houghton, at the Gaiety theatre this evening caused unprecedented scenes at the entrance and within the auditorium. The crowds cheered the carriage as it drew up at the door. Hats, umbrellas and handkerchiefs were waved when the viceroy alighted, hundreds following him into the theatre and cheering when he entered his box. The densely packed audience rose and cheered him for several minutes. As the uproar subsided, somebody shouted: "Three cheers for Morley and Home Rule!" The men in the audience jumped on the seats, waving hats and handkerchiefs and shouting for five minutes. Then the orchestra played "God Save the Queen." Most persons in the house stood until the orchestra had finished and cheered again. Lord Houghton stood at the front of his box, bowing and smiling. He was visibly affected by the cordiality of the welcome. Lord Houghton has increased his popularity not a little since his recent arrival at Dublin Castle by his addition toward the Unionist Chamber of Commerce. That body prepared to present to him an address, stating that "they are convinced that union is essential for the prosperity of trade, and expressing the hope that the Government will continue to administer the laws with the firmness needed to preserve to the people a sense of security." Without noticing the obvious reflections on the Gladstone cabinet, Lord Houghton answered the representatives of the Chamber to the effect that, owing to the allusions in the address to controversial matters of the highest political importance, he must refuse to accept or consider it.

Jumped to His Death.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 8.—Pursued by an imaginary man with a big black dog, Samuel Whittle, who came here from Baltimore, jumped to his death out of a third story window on West Diamond street yesterday morning. For more than an hour he lay weltering in his blood, before a policeman happened to find him and had him removed to the Alleghany general hospital, where he is now dying. Whittle went to bed about 10; the next room to his was occupied by Patrick Burke. During the night Burke was awakened by Whittle, who yelled, "For God sake help me, there is a man and a big black dog after me." Burke quieted the man's fears, put him back to bed and then returned to his own room. Whittle got up again, haunted by the man with the black dog, and jumped out of the window to escape them.

Robbed His Employers.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 8.—John A. Griffith, ex-President of the Anchor Manufacturing Co., and now secretary to Treasurer James Fogarty, was caught in the act of robbing the safe in the office of the company on Thursday night. He now occupies a cell in the county jail charged with burglary, grand larceny and embezzlement. Six months ago Fogarty noticed that the receipts were becoming short and marked coins were put in the safe. When Fogarty opened the inner door of the safe he found them missing, and a detective was employed. He hid under a rear stairway, and from this point not only saw Griffith rob the safe, but saw Mrs. Griffith, his wife, stand at the door as sentinel. Just as he closed the door the detective placed him under arrest. Griffith has confessed to the theft of some $6,000 or $7,000 during the past six months.

Slighted the People's Party.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 8.—The Union Pacific officials were to-day informed that the People's party had filed a complaint against the line with the Interstate committee. They assert that the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific carried delegates from San Francisco to Minneapolis and Chicago during the national conventions at one half the regular fare. When the People's party convention was held in this city reduced rates were asked for and refused, and the People's party delegates had to pay double the rate charged the Republican and Democratic delegates. Complaints have been filed by T. U. Carter, of San Francisco, and the roads have been cited to explain why they made such a discrimination.

His Partner Peached.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8.—The trial of James E. Wells for complicity in the forgery by which Thomas Crane was swindled out of $8000, in exchange for which he secured a fictitious mortgage on the property of Emma Dick, was begun to-day. It was decided to give Ollie Hutchins, his companion in crime, at some near date a hearing, as the prosecution desires to secure her testimony against Wells. It will be remembered that she was arrested in Oregon and made a full confession of the crime that led to the arrest of Wells and Pilcher. The latter committed suicide in the office of the chief of police as soon as he discovered that the Hutchins woman had confessed.

A Contemporary of Napoleon.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The Advertiser this morning says:—James R. Sayers, a resident of New York for 60 years, and a prominent business man, died yesterday. He was born in Rahway in 1793. He enlisted in the war of 1812 and was assigned to the superintendency of the forts in New York bay, and on Staten Island. In the good old days of a century ago he was a skilled mechanic at 19. He put his sword over his mantel piece long before Napoleon's star sank at Waterloo. After achieving success in business he went over to New York where he made a fortune as a mason builder retiring in 1846.

Married to a Vixen.

BLYTHEBOURNE, Long Island, N. Y., Oct. 7.—James Lindsay, living at the corner of Eleventh avenue and Sixtieth street, quarrelled with his wife last night and left the house, saying he was tired of this business, and he was going to put an end to it. He proceeded to the crossing of the New York and Sea Beach Railway, threw himself in front of an approaching train, and was instantly killed.

Electricity's Freaks.

BERLIN, Oct. 7.—An explosion in the electrical works in the Liecenstrasse Lin Kingsberg to-day, wrecked the building and set fire to the ruins. Several workmen were injured severely and two were killed outright. A tenement house next door caught fire near the ground floor. It burned with such rapidity that 12 of the tenants saved their lives only by a miracle.

Was Thought Much Of.

WASHINGTON, N.J., Oct. 7.—Joseph Soiner, aged 37, chief inspector of the Cornish organ works was found dead this morning under a railroad bridge. He must have fallen over the side after alighting from the train after attending a political meeting at Hackettstown last night. The factory hands felt so badly over the accident that the large establishment was closed for the day.

Could Not Agree.

MARFA, Tex., Oct. 7.—Yesterday on returning from work John McCarthy, section foreman on the Southern Pacific Railway, found his wife in a dying condition. She had written a note, stating that she had taken morphine. He immediately shot himself through the heart, dying instantly. His wife died several hours later. Family troubles were the cause.

MAJOR EDWARDS' ESCAPADE.

The Whilom Kingston Candidate Interrupts the Church Congress.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—At the Church Congress in the Dover town hall, Major Edwards, who was a Labor candidate for Parliament at the late election, rose between the opening prayer and the Bishop of Manchester's address on theosophy and began singing loudly, "Ta-ra-ra-boom-de-ay." Several clergymen tried to pull him into his seat and quiet him, but he hung to a pillar and sang on. Two constables were called and they ejected him. Major Edwards was for some time an instructor in the Royal Military College at Kingston, Ontario, a position which he resigned to run for the Canadian House of Commons on the "single tax" platform. He received very few votes, and shortly afterwards returned to England, where he identified himself with the Labor party in politics.

YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE.

Some Important Business Transacted at the Council.

FRESNO, Oct. 7.—The council of the Young Men's Institute was called to order this morning at 9. Among the new features adopted was the classification of members on a plan different from the old one. The members classified as heretofore were known as active and honorary. Under the new arrangement the members will be known as active, associate and honorary. Active members will be entitled to all the benefits of the order. Associate members will not be entitled to participation in the sick benefits, nor in the insurance scheme, if one should be adopted. To the honorary membership none will belong except priests, and they must submit to examinations similar to those of the other applicants. Associate members are required to pay one-half the fee required from active members. The chairman of the committee on insurance read the following:—"That they are in favor of the establishment of a beneficiary fund for the purpose of a burial fund and relief, as directed by the Grand Directors, recommending that no burial allowance shall exceed $75 for any active individual member, and that such allowance may be paid upon the recommendation of the subordinate council, of which said deceased shall be a member." The report was received, and a long discussion pro and con followed, in which many of the leading members of the order participated.

It was finally decided that some kind of an insurance be adopted, and the subject was referred back to the committee with instructions to draw up an article fixing the death benefit feature at $100, and that all active members be eligible for assessments. The committee recommended that the dues in all councils be $1 per month, 50 cents of which be devoted to the sick fund, the remainder to the establishment of a general fund, out of which will be paid a per capita tax for the funeral benefit fund of $100, should the council determine to establish such a fund. A relief fund of five cents per month per capita was recommended.

The Leveson Gower Estate.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—A bitter contest over part of the estate of the late Duke of Sutherland has begun, between the present Duke and his step-mother, formerly Mrs. Blair. The son is known to have resented from the first his father's union with the widow and refused to recognize her. His father ejected him at her request from Tittensor House, near Trentham, in her favor. She took possession at once, dismissed all the old servants and maintained the reorganized establishment until the Duke's death. Then the step-son seized Tittenser House in her absence. He replaced her new servants with the old ones, and gave a caretaker charge of the estate. When the Dowager Duchess returned, on Wednesday, the caretaker refused to let her enter. She made a scene at the door, but the caretaker remained firm and she left, declaring that she would contest her husband's will. She says that her husband repeatedly told her that he wished her to retain Tittensor.

An act of generosity on the part of an English hospital nurse towards her poorer sisters is recorded. Sister Emma Durham has handed over the whole of the money, some £200, received for services rendered to Lord Tennyson, as a free gift to the Junius Morgan Benevolent Fund in connection with the Royal National Pension Fund for Nurses. The money is to be used for the benefit of the poorer nurses. The gift was given to commemorate the celebration of the Poet Laureate's 83rd birthday.

THE OKANAGAN COUNTRY.

Interesting Notes of life in the Fertile Region Around Vernon.

From the Vernon News.]

Mr. Kruger has grown fine peaches at Osoyoos this season. Okanagan Smith, to the south of the boundary line, has also fine peaches, a load of which he sent into Camp Fairview last week.

A silver trout weighing 10 lbs was caught a few days ago in Okanagan lake by Mr. E. R. Bailey. This species is becoming quite rare and this one has been taken charge of by Mr. Lumby, who is preserving it for the World's Fair.

A bear was killed in the Coldstream Valley near Mr. George Keefer's on Friday last, by Mr. John Gangro. The bear-slayer in this case claims to have had a tussle with his game and forcing him into a crevice between two rocks dispatched him with a knife.

The Dominion Government have not provided a building for customs at Osoyoos yet. The efficient collector, Mr. Kruger, has had to furnish his own accommodation—a small log cabin. A shingle supported by one nail tells the public that Her Majesty's customs are collected there. The least the Government can do at present is to contribute another shingle nail. Mr. Kruger has a flock of wild geese so domesticated that they will take food out of the hand.

Mr. Stanton is putting on a six-horse coach on the route from Penticton to Oro. He purposes shortly to have a daily coach from Loomiston to Oro, and make the latter point the starting-place on the trip to Penticton. This stage he intends to run on time, and if in making connections the coach is an hour or two late in starting, the driver will have to make it up on the route. In fact, so regular does he intend to make it that like the old English "Tally ho," the people along the way may set their clocks by it. Mr. Stanton is the right man for this country.

The freight monstrosity of $2.50 per ton charged by Mr. Ellis at Penticton, for imaginary wharfage, comes in for a liberal amount of execration all over the lower country. It was promised some time ago that this matter would be taken in hand, but still the extortion goes on. As freight is now landed not on Mr. Ellis' property, but on the new townsite of Penticton, it becomes the duty of the new proprietors to put a stop to this if they wish to retain the good will of the people of the lower country.

The fruit preserving factory for the Okanagan is likely soon to be an accomplished fact. On Tuesday Mr. O. W. F. Krauss, who was sent out by Lord Aberdeen to take charge of this matter, arrived in Vernon, accompanied by Mrs. Krauss. He met with Mr. Jamieson and Mr. Mackay and conferred with them as to ways and means, and in a short time will no doubt be in a position to give definite information. Mr. Krauss learned the confectionery and jam making business at Berlin, and was afterwards manager of a jam factory in California, and is in all respects a suitable man to manage the business. The factory will be situated in Vernon.

THE KOOTENAY COUNTRY.

Silver King Negotiations—The Claim Jumper—Placer Mines.

From the Miner.]

Mr. Perry reports that the initial post of the Slocan Boy has been burned out, apparently maliciously.

The Ladies' Guild has definitely fixed the 25th of October for their bazaar. Fancy prices will not prevail.

The chief engineer of the Ainsworth had his finger crushed so badly yesterday as to necessitate amputation.

F. S. Barnard, Mrs. Barnard and Miss Loewen, Captain John and Mrs. Irving, arrived in Nelson on Tuesday, visited Bonner's Ferry on Wednesday, and returned to the coast yesterday.

At the school board meeting it was decided to make an agreement with Miss Stella Kane, as teacher, for the school year beginning August 15, 1892. After October 1st, the law regarding the compulsory attendance of children at school will be strictly enforced.

Captain McCormick, who is interested in the Royal Group of placer mines on the Salmon river, British Columbia, is in Spokane for the purpose of purchasing the necessary machinery for the proper development of the claims. Gold in paying quantities has been taken out of the Salmon river for years, but this part of the country, the captain says, through some cause has been overlooked.

C. E. Perry, C. E., has been in the Slocan country for the past two months, surveying claims and townsites. He has been working hard and has got through an immense amount of work. His opinion of the country in general agrees with that of every man who has been there and who has taken his eyes with him. He has again left Nelson for a short time on a trip up the Duncan river, and on his return will pay another visit to New Denver.

Jas. Durkin, the owner of the Cobaugh interest in the Silver King, was in town this week. Two months ago he gave the Kootenay Bonanza company a deed of this interest which was placed in escrow with the Bank of British North America in Victoria to be taken up before the 1st of October. The deed was sent to Scotland by the bank for inspection, but it has not yet been taken out of escrow, the time having been extended. The fact that the 1st of October was chosen as the limit of time on the sale of this interest, proves that the company expected to have completed the deal before that date. And they have not done so. Negotiations have apparently taken longer than they expected. But the latest reports from Scotland leave no room for doubt that the sale will soon be satisfactorily concluded.

The school trustees have done well in calling attention to the fact that the drainage from the school house falls into Ward creek. If the government and the C. P. R. had spent some of the money which they were going to have spent on roads in devising some sort of a system of drainage, it might not, perhaps, have been a bad investment; as good a one, at any rate, as the clearing done on some of the streets will prove to be. Ward creek is the natural drain of the town, and it would have cost but a trifle to have boxed it in, and to have run subsidiary drains into it from the various parts of the town. It is the policy, however, of our lords and masters, not to improve the healthiness of the town, or to put in improvements which would be of some permanent and real use, but to make the greatest show for the least money.

How She Became an Actress.

It will indeed be strange if Margaret Mather, the best known and most able tragedienne on the American stage, is not greeted by two of the largest and most brilliant audiences on her approaching engagement at the Victoria Opera House, next Wednesday and Thursday nights. There is a feeling of patriotism in her coming; a general desire to render homage to the only Canadian-born actress who has gained the most widespread recognition from both the press and the public of the United States. It may not be generally known, but it is a fact, that Margaret Mather, first saw the light of day in the little town of Tilbury West, Ontario. Her father, John Findlayson, shortly afterwards moved to Detroit, Mich., taking Margaret and her brothers and sisters over to the city of the straits. There she lived until she went to New York to spend some time with her sister. Before go, however, she had seen Mary Anderson—as the luckless, star-crossed daughter of the House of Capulet—and was wild with a desire to act the same parts. Long hours she studied, and many were the disappointments she met before she induced a New York manager to listen to her request for a trial. The trial came under the most untoward circumstances. Over the back of an ordinary chair Miss Findlayson, for she had not then adopted her stage name, read the potion and the balcony scenes from "Romeo and Juliet." The New Yorker was captivated and before he left the room made her promise not to see anyone else until he could get back with a lawyer and a contract. She went about the country giving readings to the newspaper men and on the 28th of August, 1882, made her debut at McVicker's theatre, Chicago. She had, however, dropped the name of Findlayson and adopted the name of Mather, that of her mother's family. That first night saw the curtain rise on uncertainty; after the last act, on one of the most remarkable triumphs of the stage. She was everywhere hailed as "the one Juliet," and since that time has gone steadily forward in her chosen career, each year seeing some fresh triumph added to her already long list. Such is the history of the star who has been secured for a two nights' engagement here. For the first night of her engagement she will present a curtain raiser, "Nance Oldfield and a five act tragedy, "the Egyptian," a translation of Victor Hugo's Hunchback of Notre Dame. For the second night Shakespeare's magnificent "Romeo and Juliet."

ENORMOUS DEMAND.

It is Now the Favorite Food.

The demand, up to the present time, for that justly popular Lactated Food is enormous. Thousands of mothers in Canada have commenced its use this year for their babies, and have cast aside all other prepared foods.

This fact proves strongly that Lactated Food has given entire satisfaction. Mothers have written to the manufacturers kindly thanking them for having introduced such a boon for babies. Mothers declare that their weak and delicate little ones were made strong and healthy by the use of Lactated Food.

This King of Foods is lauded and praised in every part of our Dominion; and the time is not far distant, when it will be the only prepared food that will be admitted into the home.

Might Have Come to Canada.

The Canadian Gazette says:—"It may interest Canadian readers to know that but for one small turn of the wheel of fortune the editor of the Illustrated London News would now, in all probability, have been driving his quill for the exclusive benefit of the Canadian public. When Mr. Clement K. Shorter was quite a youth—before he was allured into the by-paths of Somerset House, and when life in England seemed poor enough in opportunities—he fell across the reporter of a Toronto journal—probably the Globe—who happened to be in this country. This Canadian journalist at once sympathised with the literary yearnings of the bookish youth, and induced him to pack up his scanty belongings and prepare to make a start in the New World as a "junior" on the Toronto daily. Everything was made ready, and only at the last moment was the plan defeated by the news of the drowning of the Toronto friend on Lake Ontario."

His Worship the Mayor and Board of Aldermen.

GENTLEMEN—We, the undersigned, having received a copy of a resolution passed by the Council on the 28th of September, re Broad street extension across lot 1252, block T, have the honor to submit the report and plan attached, in conformity with sections 4 and 5, by-law 170, intituled "A By-law to provide for the assessment of real property benefitted by local improvements."

The following is a description of the real property which in our opinion will be benefitted by the proposed improvement, viz: A portion of the southerly half of Block N., composed of lots 584, 585; east half of 589, 590, 591, 592; the easterly part of 535, 1252 and 1251, Block T.; 657, 658, 659, 660, and part of 661, of the westerly part of Block U.; also 664, 665, 666, 667 and a part of 668, a portion of the easterly part of Block U, also 159a, 160a, 161a, and 162a, a portion of the westerly part of Block 2; also 423, 424, a portion of the easterly part of Block 2; also 164a 165a, 166a, 167a, 168a, 169a. and 170a. and 414, a portion of the westerly part of Block 13; also 405, 413, 416, and 429, a portion of the easterly part of Block 13

2. We consider the proposed improvement will be permanent.

3. The estimate cost of the proposed extension, including right-of-way, removing and making good buildings, grading and macadamizing street, sidewalks, etc., is $12,000, which amount is assessed against the property, that in our opinion is immediately benefitted.

4. The proportion in which the assessment is made on the various portions of the real property benefitted, is described in detail in the list hereto attached. The real property benefitted is shown in red on the plan attached.

Sub-Section D, showing the Property on which the Assessment is to be made on the various Lots benefitted.

CITY HEALTH NOTICE

THE ACTING MEDICAL HEALTH OFFICER for the City of Victoria recommends that all citizens be required to thoroughly clean up their premises, removing all garbage heaps, decaying vegetables, stable manure, and night soil, and disinfecting all closets and drains as often as necessary, and generally to comply with the provisions of the "Consolidated Health By-Law."

By order,
WELLINGTON J. DOWLER, C.M.C.

Victoria, October 1, 1892.

EXTRACTS FROM THE "CONSOLIDATED HEALTH BY-LAW."

ACCUMULATION OF FILTH.

No person shall permit or suffer the accumulation, so as to be a nuisance, of any offal, filth, refuse, stagnant water, or other offensive matter or thing upon his premises, or on any vacant lot belonging to him, or for the owner or lessee of which he is the agent.

No person shall place on any land or in or upon any street, road, or highway, any manure or other refuse matter, or any dirt or filth which is, or is likely to become, a nuisance.

No person shall convey or cause to be conveyed through any street, road, or highway, any night-soil, swill, or other filth or offensive matter dangerous to health, between the hours of six in the morning and twelve in the evening, or at any time except in a proper covered cart or vehicle, so as to prevent slopping or spilling.

Every tenant or occupier of a building shall dispose of all animal and vegetable refuse from such building or on the premises occupied therewith, either by burning the same or by placing it in a proper covered receptacle, the contents of which he shall cause to be removed at least once every week.

No person shall throw into, or leave in or upon, any street, court, square, road, lane, alley, wharf, public enclosure, vacant lot, pond, or body of water, any dead animal, dirt, sawdust, soot, ashes, cinders, shavings, hair, shreds, manure, fish shells, waste water or filth of any kind, or any refuse, animal, or vegetable matter whatever.

DRAINAGE AND PRIVIES.

The owner, lessee, agent, or person having the care of any ground, yard, vacant lot, or other property where stagnant water or other nuisance exists, abutting on any street through which a common sewer shall have been constructed shall cause the same to be effectually drained into such common sewer.

The owner, lessee, agent, or occupier of any building or premises used as a dwelling house, hotel, restaurant, saloon, shop, store, office, factory, wash-house, or otherwise, shall furnish the same with a sufficient drain under ground to carry off all waste or foul water or liquid filth; and no such drain shall empty or discharge into or upon any street, road, or highway, or any open drain thereon, unless in the opinion of the Mayor and Council the same shall not be detrimental to the public health.

All vaults and privies shall be made tight, so that the contents thereof cannot escape therefrom, and as remote from any dwelling, well, or water tank as practicable.

OVERCROWDING.

No person shall let or occupy, or suffer to be occupied, as a dwelling or lodging, any room which—

(a.) Does not contain at all times at least 384 cubic feet of space for each person occupying the same;

(b.) Has not a window made to open in a manner approved by the Medical Health Officer or the Sanitary Inspector; or

(c.) Has not appurtenant to it the use of a water-closet, earth closet or privy, constructed in accordance with the by-laws and regulations of the City.

And every room in which a person passes the night, or is found between midnight and five o'clock in the forenoon, shall be deemed to be occupied as a dwelling or lodging within the meaning of this section.

SLAUGHTER-HOUSES.

No person shall erect, open, or use any slaughter-house within the limits of the City of Victoria.

EVENTION OF THE SPREAD OF DISEASE.

Whenever a person suffering from smallpox, cholera, or any other disease of a malignant character dangerous to the public health, is an inmate of any hotel or boarding house, the keeper, or one of the keepers, of such hotel or boarding-house shall immediately give notice thereof to the Medical Health Officer or the Sanitary Inspector, who shall thereupon take such steps as may be deemed necessary to prevent the spread of such disease.

Every medical practitioner attending or visiting any person who is suffering from smallpox, cholera, or any other disease of a malignant character dangerous to the public health, shall immediately give notice thereof to the Medical Health Officer or the Sanitary Inspector, who shall thereupon take such steps as may be deemed necessary to prevent the spread of such disease.

Any officer of the Corporation may seize, and under the direction of the Medical Health Officer, the Mayor or the Sanitary Inspector, destroy any tainted or unwholesome meat, poultry, fish, or other article of food exposed or offered for sale.

PENALTY.

Every person guilty of an infraction of any of the provisions of this by-law shall, upon conviction thereof, in a summary manner, before the Police Magistrate or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction in the City, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars, and costs if ordered; and if such penalty, and costs if ordered, be not paid immediately or within such period as such Police Magistrate or Justices may appoint, the same may be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, or such offender may be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three calendar months, unless such penalty, and costs if ordered, be sooner paid.

A BY-LAW

TO ENABLE the Corporation of the City of Victoria to borrow the sum of twenty five thousand dollars for the purpose therein set forth.

Whereas it is necessary that the streets and sidewalks should be maintained and bridges improved and constructed, and whereas an in sufficient sum of the present year's unexpended revenue is at this time available for such work, it is therefore deemed expedient to raise a sum of money for the above purposes.

And whereas for the purposes aforesaid it is intended to raise by way of loan upon the credit of the city the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars.

And whereas it will require the sum of $1,289.09 to be raised annually by special rate for the payment of the debt and interest as hereinaffter mentioned.

And whereas the amount of the whole rateable property of the said Corporation of the City of Victoria according to the revised assessment roll, for the year 1891, was $17,563,148.

And whereas it will require an annual special rate of 3-40th of a mill in the dollar for the payment of the interest and the creating an equal yearly sinking fund for paying the principal of the said interest debt, according to the Municipal Act, 1892.

And whereas it is intended to reduce the general rate so that the said Special rate shall not increase the total rate of taxation.

Be it therefore enacted by the Corporation of the City of Victoria as follows:

SECTION 1.—It shall be lawful for the Mayor of the Corporation of the City of Victoria to borrow upon the credit of the said Corporation, by way of the debentures hereinafter mentioned, from any person or persons, bodyor bodies corporate who may be willing to advance the same as a loan, a sum of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of $25,000.00 currency, or sterling money at the rate of $4.86 2-3rds dollars to the one pound sterling, and to cause all such sums so raised or received to be paid into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Corporation for the purpose and with the object hereinbefore recited.

SECTION 2.—It shall be lawful for the said Mayor to cause any number of debentures to be made for such sums as may be required, not exceeding, however, the sum of $25,000.00 either in currency or sterling money (at the rate of $4.86 2-3 dollars to the one pound sterling) as may be required, each of the said debentures being of the amount of $1,000 or its sterling equivalent at the rate aforesaid, and all such debentures shall be sealed with the seal of the said Corporation and signed by the Mayor thereof.

SEC. (3).—The said debentures shall be made payable in fifty years from the date hereinafter mentioned for this By-law to take effect, at the office of the Treasurer of the said Corporation in the City Hall, Victoria, and shall have attached to them coupon's for the payment of interest, and the signature of the Mayor or of the Clerk of the Corporation respecting to the coupons may be affixed by printed, stamped or lithographed fac simile.

SECTION 4.—The said debentures shall bear interest at the rate of 4½ per cent. per annum from the date thereof, which interest shall be payable half-yearly at the office of the said Treasurer.

Sec. (5). For the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the payment of the said debentures and the interest to become due thereon, an equal special rate of 3-40ths of a mill in the dollar shall in addition to all other rates be levied and collected in each year upon all rateable property within the City of Victoria during the continuance of the said debentures or any of them.

SECTION 6.—This By-law shall before the final passage thereof receive the assent of the electors of the said Corporation in the manner provided for by the Municipal Act, 1892, and shall take effect on the 14th day of October, 1892.

SECTION 7.—This By-law may be cited as the "Street Loan By-Law, 1892."

Passed the Municipal Council this 28th day of September, 1892.

TAKE NOTICE

That the above is a true copy of the proposed by-law upon which the vote of the Municipality will be taken at Burnes' building, Bastion Square, for the Centre Ward; at the City Hall, corner of Pandora and Douglas streets, for the North Ward, and at a building situated on the east side of Government street, between Broughton and Courtney streets, and known as No. 27, for the South Ward, in the City of Victoria, on Tuesday, the eleventh day of October next, and that the poll will be kept open between the hours of eight o'clock a.m. and four p.m.

And other necessary drains not specified in above	17,322.00
Total	$100,000.00

And whereas the purpose aforesaid it is intended to raise by way of loan upon the credit of the city, the sum of $100,000.

And whereas it will require the sum of $5157 to be raised annually by special rate for the payment of the said debt and interest hereinafter mentioned.

And whereas the amount of the whole rateable property of the said corporation of the City of Victoria according to the last revised assessment roll being for the year 1891 was $17,563,148.00.

And whereas it will require an annual special rate of three-tenths of a mill in the dollar for the payment of the interest and creating an equal yearly sinking fund for payment of the principal of the said interest debt according to the Municipal Act, 1892.

And whereas it is intended to reduce the general rate so that the said special rate shall not increase the total rate of taxation;

Be it therefore enacted by the Council of the Corporation of the City of Victoria as follows:

Sec. (1.) It shall be lawful for the Mayor of the Corporation of the City of Victoria to borrow upon the credit of the said Corporation by way of debentures hereinafter mentioned, from any person or persons or body or bodies corporate who may be willing to advance the same as a loan, a sum of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of $100,000.00 currency, and to cause all such sums so raised or received to be paid into the hands of the treasurer of the said corporation for the purpose and with the object hereinbefore recited.

Sec. (2). It shall be lawful for the said Mayor to cause any number of debentures to be made for such sums as may be required, not exceeding, however, the sum of $100,000.00 in currency, each of the said debentures being of the amount of $1000, and all such debentures shall be sealed with the seal of the said Corporation and signed by the Mayor thereof.

Sec. (3). The said debentures shall be made payable in fifty years from date hereinafter mentioned for this by-law to take effect at the office of the Treasurer of the said Corporation, City Hall, Victoria, and shall have attached to them coupons for the payment of interest, and the signature of the Mayor and of the Clerk of the Corporation respectively to the coupons, may be affixed by printed, stamped or lithographed fac simile.

Sec. (4). The said debentures shall bear interest at the rate of 4½ per cent. per annum from the date thereof, which interest shall be payable half yearly at the office of the said Treasurer.

Sec. (5). For the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the payment of the said debentures the interest to become due thereon, an equal special rate of 3-10 of a mill in the dollar shall in addition to all other rates be levied and collected in each year upon all rateable property within the city of Victoria during the continuance of the said debentures or any of them.

Sec. (6). This by-law shall before the passing thereof receive the assent of the electors of the said Corporation in a manner provided for by the Municipal Act, 1892, and shall take effect on the 14th day of October, 1892.

Sec. (7). This by-law may be cited as "The Surface drains by-law, 1892.

LETTERS OF THE CZAR.

We believe with the Colonist that the publication of the ukases of the czar, addressed by letter to the City Council, and the replies of Mayor Beaven thereto, ought to be published. The TIMES will print the correspondence with pleasure, if either Mr. Davie, his organ or the Mayor will furnish a copy thereof. One ukase is said to have been very discourteous, provided of course that a czar can ever be uncivil or impertinent. The organ tells us—and before it could do so it must have been instructed by Mr. Davie—that another letter was seht to the Mayor, proposing to submit a case to the Supreme Court to test the constitutionality of the several orders-in-council and ukases of his czarship. We scarcely hope that Mayor Beaven will agree to the proposal, stipulating only that all the acts of the autocrat, aiming directly at the overthrow of municpal institutions and the concentration of all power and patronage in the hands of the Government, shall be included is the list of questons submitted to the court. Mr. Davie is working with an ulterior political object in view. The cities of the province have no confidence in him as a leader, and it is very doubtful, were a general election to take place next week, if the urban centers would return one supporter of his Government. At present, out of eight city members, only two are "so poor as do him reverence." The "dead-set" against Victoria is made in the hope that, out of misrepresentation and the despicable arts of a cunning though purblind politician, something may come that will give him a much-needed certificate of character and a consequent extension of power and political life. We have faith enough in the judiciary of the province to believe that such a case as Mr. Davie has suggested—assuming only that it is unlimited in its scope—will result in a restraining hand being laid on the ambitious designs of the little tyrant.

FOR THE ELECTORS TO DECIDE.

The real estate owners of the city will have an opportunity on Tuesday next to vote for two loan by-laws. One is to authorize the council to borrow the sum of $25,000 for the maintenance of streets and the improvement and construction of bridges, and the other is for drainage purposes, for which it is proposed to expend $100,000. The debentures under both by-laws will be payable in 50 years, and will bear interest at the rate of 4½ per cent. per annum. There is an unanimous opinion among the citizens that both by-laws ought to be adopted. One does not need to be a champion of the council to see that the evils from which the city is suffering — defective sanitary arrangements, incomplete sewers and unclean streets—are not attributable to anything done by the Mayor and Council. The Council has no money, and without money the cleverest aldermanic board in the world cannot carry on public improvements. The failure of the former loan by-laws was due to several causes, but principally to the apathy of property owners favorable to the passage of a majority of them. The two most important were the $350,000 by-law for sewerage and the $75,000 by-law for health purposes. Both of these by-laws received a majority vote, but a new and unjust provision in the Municipal law, providing for a three-fifths majority, defeated the wishes of the larger number. The vote then cast was but a fraction of the total vote of the city, and it is reasonable to infer, especially in view of the generally expressed sentiment of our citizens, that the result in the case of those by-laws, with perhaps the single exception of the proposed loan for a hospital, was eminently unsatisfactory to a very large majority of the qualified electors. Now that the necessity for street repairs and drainage is better understood, and the people have profitted by an object lesson, there is little danger that the former mistake will be repeated. Opposition to the by-laws, under existing conditions, would therefore be unwise and unpatriotic. The danger of their defeat lies not in any active opposition, but in the indifference of that large class of ratepayers that seldom go to the polls.

The following is an approximate estimate of the work to be done under the drainage by-law:

Approximate estimate of cost of principal sewers for surface drainage. August 30th, 1892.

Kings road, Work Estate, brick sewer 4 feet diam	$27,415.00
View street drain, brick sewer 3 feet diam and branches	20,000.00
Spring Ridge and Fernwood road 2 feet diam	6,750.00
Cook street drain 2 feet diam and branches	13,333.00
Michigan and Superior street 4 feet brick sewer	15,000.00
Oswego street 20 in. pipe	3,350.00
Menzies street 20 in. pipe	1,800.00
And other necessary drains not specified in above	17,322.00
Total	$100,000.00

The importance of this expenditure is manifest to every person. It is certain that if we are ever going to make Victoria a clean city, and put it in a position to minimize to the utmost possible extent the dangers from infectious diseases, a perfect system of drains and sewers must be constructed. It rests now with the electors to decide on Tuesday next whether the present reign of dirt and disease shall continue or a new and better order of things shall be inaugurated.

CARON AND BEEMER.

Sir Adolphe Caron and his fellow-ministers must look with grim satisfaction on their success in changing the wording of Mr. Edgar's charges. Although the investigating commission has held but two or three meetings, it has elicited quite enough evidence to establish the accusations made by Mr. Edgar, though not enough to support them as they came from the manipulating fingers of Sir John Thompson. To show that Mr. Edgar was correct in charging that Sir Adolphe received money from beneficiaries of the Lake St. John subsidy to be spent in the election of 1887, it is only necessary to quote from the evidence of Contractor Beemer. It appears thus in the Montreal Gazette's report:

The commission spent two hours looking into Mr. Beemer's books in the presence of the counsel on both sides and drawing up a statement from them of all the amounts paid for political purposes. This done the judges resumed their seats on the bench and Mr. Beemer was again put on the stand and produced the statement referred to and swore that it contained all the payments made for the purposes mentioned. In answer to a question put to him he said the letters "G.E.F." and "A.P.C." meant "general election fund" and "A. P. Caron." This did not signify that he had actually paid money to Sir Adolphe Caron; it was only his way of identifying payments, Sir Adolphe Caron being the representative of the district. Previous to the elections of '87, Hon. J. G. Ross had asked him what he could do, and he replied that he had no money to spare. He gave on February 3rd three notes of $5000 each which Mr. Ross discounted and two more of a like amount on February 18th, making $25,000 altogether. He expected to have to pay a portion of the amount at maturity, perhaps half, but when he found that he was expected to pay the whole he did so without a word. He would have given the notes even if he had known that he would have to meet them himself, for the Hon. J. G. Ross was a good friend of his and discounted his paper up to $300,000 or $500,000 at a time, and at one time as much as $800,000.

Further on Mr. Beemer said he had subscribed $2000 for the Montmorency bye election in 1890 and in 1891 gave a vote for $3000 for the general election. And again:—

He subscribed this money because he considered the Conservative Government a good one and that their policy was a good one, and that they deserved to be sustained. At this time the company was asking for increased subsidies, but he would have subscribed even if he had not expected any favor from the Government. He did not do everything for the sake of profit.

It can hardly be expected that any man in Canada at this day will be so innocent as to believe that Mr. Beemer was merely testifying to his admiration of the "good government" and had no thought of increased subsidies when he went down into his pocket for that $25,000. His device is of the same class as that employed by the Connolly firm when they put aside hundreds of thousands of dollars for "benevolent purposes." Sir Hugh Allan was also supposed to have contributed to the Conservative election fund in 1872 out of simple admiration for the Government of Sir John Macdonald, but the public perversely took the view that his contribution was the price of the Pacific Railway charter. There was no actual bargain shown by the evidence taken before the Pacific Scandal commission, but the people saw that the bargain was there. It is not at all likely that the Caron commission will result in showing a direct bargain between the minister and the receivers of the subsidies—Mr. Edgar was very careful not to say there was one,—but no man is going to be fool enough to believe that Mr. Beemer's $25,000, and other like sums, were contributed to Caron's corruption fund out of pure admiration for the Conservative Government. "He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow" is just as true of ministers and contractors as it is of other people who signify an illegitimate purpose by a slight momentary drooping of the eyelid.

MINING LAW REFORM.

This subject is dealt with in a letter written to the Nelson Miner by Mr. Richard Irwin, manager of the Tam O'Shanter mine, who suggests three reforms, namely:—Reduction in the size of claims; the requirement of a discovery of mineral "in place" before a claim can be located; and smaller fees. As to the size he says:—"One thousand feet in length or not over 500 feet on either side of the centre of the discovery shaft is enough, if it is good, and too much if it isn't good; and not over 150 feet on each side of the centre line of the claim is certainly sufficient for all mining purposes." Mr. Irwin holds that the claim should be definitely located by instrumental survey, mineral in place having first been discovered. The centre of the discovery shaft and the central line of the claim should be added to the original location certificate. The centre of the discovery shaft and two posts, or each side of the shaft, from 150 to 200 feet distant, Mr. Irwin thinks would suffice to mark the exact point of discovery and the central line, from which later prospectors could ascertain the boundaries of the claim. Of the faults of the present system he says:

The present corner posts and proposed blazing out of the exterior lines would soon become so confusing (especially where many located claims never have the first assessment work done on them, and are open to relocation) as to prevent the rapid development of the country, and will foster litigation. In no other country that I am familiar with (and I have prospected and mined for over 30 years in the United States, Ontario and Mexico) is a claim on a quartz vein, or deposit, allowed to be taken up, without having first found some 'mineral bearing rock' in place, but not even loose float, nothing but two posts and a record are required in British Columbia, and a claim of over 50 acres can be held by two posts on one side of it for nearly a year, without doing work upon it. Another bad feature of the present law is that the claim is bounded by vertical side lines (as well as vertical end lines), and a vein cannot be followed 'on its dip' outside the limits of a claim.

As to fees, Mr. Irwin contends that "Recording fees should not be over $1.00 for each certificate of location and for each affidavit and record of assessment work done. The cost of materials used in doing assessment work (ammunition, cost of packing supplies to the mine, and sharpening of tools) should be counted as part of the assessment work, as well as the actual labor, which should be valued at $4.00 per day of 8 hours." Mr. Irwin's views may not commend themselves in their entirety to every person interested in the subject, but some of them at least are in accordance with opinions given by other miners of experience, and it must be admitted that he shows very clearly the need of reform. Another contribution on the same subject we take from the last issue of the Ainsworth News:

It appears that the Slocan jumper of claims is already rampant. We hear that stakes have been moved and burnt out and notices obliterated. We do not know to what extent this has been going on; it is enough for us that it is possible. And still no one seems to take to heart the very serious state of confusion that is imminent there. It is not too much to say that the whole mining law offers so many opportunities for fraud and rascality that no man is safe in the possession of a claim until he has the crown grant in his pocket. And it is questionable if he is safe even then. Many of the notices of application for certificates of improvements omit to call on adverse claimants to bring forward their claims. In the section of the Mineral Act, 1891, giving the essentials of such a notice, a clause calling for adverse claims is not mentioned, but in the schedule to the act, which gives a form of notice, this clause is inserted. How many notices published are in accordance with this schedule? All ought to be.

A PUBLIC NUISANCE.

TO THE EDITOR:—I have no means of ascertaining which of the two clocks—McKillican's or Redfern's—is the real offender; but I do know that the whole community is seriously inconvenienced by the irregularity of these timekeepers. Some step should be taken to detect and correct the dials until the clocks or their owners shall have returned to a sense of the duty they owe the public. TEMPUS.

THE CANADA WESTERN.

The Construction Company Now Ready to Begin the Work of Laying the Track.

The Line Runs Through Moderately Easy Country—The Finances and Officers.

The British Pacific Construction Co., Ltd., which is to construct the Canada Western Railway, is now a thoroughly organized and regularly incorporated company, and another step towards the building of that line has been taken. The articles of incorporation were filed with the registrar on Thursday. The trustees of the construction company are Robert Paterson Rithet, E. Crowe Baker, William F. Butler, E. B. Marvin, William J. Macauley, Theodore Lubbe, Joshua Davies, Charles A. Vernon and Frank Bakeman. The bankers are the Bank of British Columbia. The general counsel is F. P. Blackman. The solicitors are Messrs. Bodwell & Irving. W. H. Bainbridge is special agent. The latter and the bankers are the ones to whom application for stock should be made. The capital stock is $5,000,000, divided into 50,000 shares of $100 each.

The construction company is incorporated for the purpose, primarily, of laying out, building and equipping the Canada Western Railway from Victoria or Wellington to Seymour Narrows, Fort Rupert and the north end of the island for the island division, and from Bute Inlet on the mainland through the Chilcotin, Cariboo and Peace River countries to the Yellow Head Pass for the mainland division. By virtue of a contract entered into by the Canada Western by its provincial directors, the above company will transfer to Frank Bakeman, as trustee for the construction company, all such company's land grants, subsidies and premises, on condition that the construction company builds and equips the road according to the terms of the company's charter. The route of the proposed railway has been surveyed, and its feasibility in point of construction for all purposes of railway traffic has been fully established. Complete instrumental surveys with maps, plans and profiles of the line from Bute Inlet to Yellow Head Pass, 546 miles, have been made by the Dominion Government, and are available.

The articles of the construction company are very comprehensive and provide for all manner of rights useful in the development of the country to be reached by the railway. Its powers in engaging in different industries are unlimited.

The prospectus of the company in referring to the route gives some very interesting information. It states that the country from Nanaimo to Seymour Narrows is generally level and even and offers no serious obstacles to railway construction. It quotes Marcus Smith, C. E., in his report to the Government in 1878, as describing the ferry from Bute Inlet to the Island as "the true route for a transcontinental line whether regarded in its national or economic aspect." It further says that there are two good routes to the end of the Island from Seymour Narrows, neither differing materially from an engineering standpoint.

From Waddington Harbor, at the head of Bute Inlet, to the Fraser, the road passes up the valley of the Hemalko river and across what is called the Central Plateau. The distance is 318 miles and the work is divided by Marcus Smith as follows:

	Miles.
Heavy	59
Rather heavy	50½
Moderate	94
Very light	134½

From the crossing of the Fraser river to the boundary line of Yellow Head Pass is 228 miles. The first 47 miles curve around the northern extension of the Cariboo Mountains and across the peninsula which the Fraser river here forms. The remainder of the distance is up the Fraser valley. Marcus Smith says in his report of this 228 miles, 25 miles may be described as heavy and the remainder moderate, light and very light.

THE SONGISH SUCCESSION.

The Wife of the Late Chief Has Her Husband's Will.

The question of who is to succeed Chief Scomiak, of the Songish tribe, is now agitating the residents of the reserves in Victoria West. Several items have appeared in the TIMES on the subject and this morning the widow of Scomiak sent the following letter for publication:

"SONGISH RESERVE, VICTORIA, Oct. 8, 1892.—We have learned by the newspaper that a certain one wants to be chief. Whoever has published it in the papers, it is wrong, because the chief's wife is not able to have anyone take her husband's place. She feels too sad to bear anyone else take her husband's place. The chief left word with his wife who he wished to take his place, and had it written a few months ago. He thought no one had a right to take his place but one of his own family; but no one knows but his own wife. She has been told several times that it has been in the newspapers about the new chief. It makes her feel sad to hear it mentioned, because she knows what her husband said about the chief. She says the Indians are going to have a meeting and she will then tell the people who her husband wished to have as chief. So whoever has been putting this in the papers, he must sign his name. It is wrong for him to have it in the papers all the time ANNIE, (Sorgish.)

To Present a Cantata.

A musical treat of no mean order is in preparation by the choir of the First Presbyterian Church, under the direction of Mr. J. G. Brown. The choir have been hard at work for the last two months on the sacred cantata "Rebecca," composed by F. W. Hodges, which will be given on Tuesday the 18th inst. The performance of the cantata will take about an hour and a half, after which there will be a second part consisting of songs, duets and instrumental solos. Nothing need be said regarding the ability of this well known choir. Its previous record is sufficient guarantee that the programme presented will be "up to the mark." The principal soloists in the cantata will be Mrs. McCandless (Rebecca), Miss Campbell, Miss Wilson, Messrs. G. F. Watson, Kinnaird, Gold and I. Watson. In the second part there will be Mr. E. Wolfe, violinist; Mrs. Wolfe, soprano; Mr. G. F. Watson, tenor; Mr. J. G. Brown, baritone. There will be a chorus of 35 voices.

Pleasant and Profitable.

The sale of work at the Mt. Tolmie Presbyterian church last evening was a very pleasant affair. It was well attended, and the programme rendered and the refreshments served were much enjoyed.

The Cowichan Show.

A mumber of Victorians went up to Duncan's station this morning to attend the annual exhibition of the Cowichan and Salt Spring Island Agricultural Association. The exhibition is always an interesting one.

Run Over by a Hack.

Fred Morse, aged 11, living near the James Bay bridge, was run over by a hack last night on Government street. A wheel passed over his shoulder. He is not seriously injured. He was playing tag with some companions and ran in front of the hack.

The Opera of Robin Hood.

The committee of the Victoria Amateur Operatic Society to whom was referred the question of selecting an opera to be presented before Christmas, has telegraphed to New York to see if it would be possible for them to present Robin Hood. This opera is copyrighted.

A Return Dance.

A number of ladies will meet on Monday evening to arrange for a dance that they intend giving within a few weeks to the members of the Comus Club, by whom they were entertained last season. The meeting will be held in Dr. Quinlan's office, over the Five Sisters block.

One Year Old.

The Victoria Home Journal celebrated its first birthday to-day. In every one of the 52 issues of the paper there have been one or more articles of interest, and each succeeding issue has been an improvement on its predecessor. The management promise some big changes for the better during the coming year.

Harvest Festival.

The St. Saviour's Church Harvest Festival will be held on Saturday evening, the 15th inst. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. B. Hewetson. The services will be continued on Sunday, the 16th inst., when Rev. Scholefield will preach in the morning and Rev. Canon Beanlands in the evening. Rev W. D. Barber will conduct an afternoon service for the children.

Exaggerated Reports.

A letter received in this city from a person who is attending the Kamloops fair, shows that the people of the Inland City have heard some pretty well exaggerated reports regarding the smallpox in this city. The writer says that there was a report at Kamloops that Victoria was to be quarantined again, as there were a large number of new cases, and several deaths.

The Wrong Name.

In the police court report yesterday it was stated that one Thomas Atkins had been fined for drunkenness. The man's name was Deans, in the employ of Mr. Atkins. Deans had letters in his pocket addressed to Mr. Atkins and the police took the name for Deans, who was unable to speak for himself. Mr. Atkins, naturally enough, feels annoyed at having his name mixed up in such proceedings, and at his request, and in justice to him, this explanation is made.

Anniversary of the Y.M.C.A.

Sunday is the anniversary of the establishing of the Victoria Y.M.C.A. Special services will be held in the association hall and in several of the churches. Messrs. Dummet, Gates and Duncan, all well known in connection with Y.M.C.A. work, will be present. A mass meeting will be held at 4 in the afternoon, and a meeting, to which ladies are invited, will be held at 8 in the evening. The anniversary meeting proper will not be held until Tuesday evening.

From the West Coast.

The steamer Maude returned this morning from the west coast. She brought as passengers A. E. Sober, Mrs. Sober, William Halfpenny, R. Pinkerton, S. Lowthian, three Indians and six Chinamen. Her freight consisted of oil and salt salmon. One hundred barrels of salmon were brought from Barclay, where a curing establishment has been recently started. It will be impossible to complete the paper mill at Alberni this year, as the wet weather has stopped work on the flume.

Arrival of the May Belle.

The sealing schooner May Belle, which arrived last night from the islands, took only 524 skins for the year, and not 859 as reported in the Colonist this morning. Sealing men object very much to having their catches bolstered up. The schooner had a thrilling experience late in August. She was chased by a Russian cruiser and fired at. One shot was sent across her bow, a second struck the forecastle. Happily a fog settled down and the May Belle escaped. She was the schooner spoken by the Loo Sok, 100 miles off the coast, and not 500 as reported by the Loo Sok.

Fully Vindicated.

To all who understood the alleged moral depravity scandal the dropping of the charge against Mr. John M. Macoun will be appreciated as simple justice. There was absolutely nothing in the entire case to connect Mr. Macoun with anything criminal, and mixing him up with it was particularly unfortunate. He is a young man who by hard work has brought himself to a prominent position, and the prospects before him are the brightest. That this case should injure him would be unfortunate in the extreme. What appeared to him to be a wrong he called to the attention of an over-zealous newspaper friend, and he returns from his mission to Behring Sea charged with the very thing he had sought to bring to public notice. The vindication should be given more publicity than the issuance of the summons against him was.

THE SMALLPOX SITUATION.

Reports From the Medical and Health Authorities.

Dr. Richardson, resident physician, Jubilee Hospital, reported this afternoon that there were five smallpox cases still in hospital, no fresh cases and all patients doing well. The following report was made by Dr. Watt, Health Officer:

On Monday a baby at 66 Pembroke street was reported to me as having, died from smallpox. The other children and parents have been quarantined at Ross Bay.

Wm. McGibbon, the patient who has just died near Nanaimo, did not as reported, leave Victoria "with the disease fully developed," but some 15 days before he was taken sick.

The Tramway Company's Machinery.

The great Wheelock engine at the tramway works was started on Friday evening for the first time since the fire, and responded to the call as promptly and efficiently as when it left the maker's hands. The various parts worked like a charm, and without the slightest mishap. As the repairs of this engine were effected by Spratt & Gray, its excellent condition is evidence of the ability and carefulness of their workmen. The 50-inch leather belt, imported by Nicholles & Renouf for the company, behaved in a most satisfactory manner. All things considered, the parties to whom were entrusted the restoration of the plant are to be highly commended for the manner in which they have discharged their difficult tasks.

Entertainment at Cedar Hill.

The entertainment and sale of work by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, Cedar Hill, last evening was a very decided success. The school room proved much too small for the audience, who, however, accepted the situation—and the impromptu seats and lean-tos—good naturedly. The programme was a very good one. It was varied by some clever slight of hand work and mind reading by an amateur performer. About $95 clear was realized. The ladies have now raised $400 cash and have about $100 worth of work still on hand to disposed of by private sale, a very creditable showing for a year and a half's work. The object in view is the erection of a Presbyterian church.

The Most Interesting Phase.

Capt. Urquhart to-day began action to recover his sealskins on the steamer Coquitlam by replevin. The outcome of his case will be watched with interest, for it is one of the most interesting features of the Coquitlam tangle. The captain claims to have had nothing to do with the charter of the Coquitlam and that his skins were shipped on her in the part of a common carrier. He did not bond his skins out of the custody of the U. S. government, but they were released on the general bond filed by the other sealers. He made a demand for the other skins upon the arrival of the Coquitlam and on the refusal of Capt. McLellan to give them up has taken the action referred to above. The papers were served this afternoon.

Back From Her Trip.

The Government steamer Quadra, Captain Walbran, arrived in port this afternoon from visiting the Gulf lighthouses. Her last port was Nanaimo, where she coaled, and left there this morning, going into Esquimalt for the sealing boat lent to the Melpomene last summer. Captain Walbran reports having experienced dense fogs during the cruise.

THE SECRET SOCIETIES.

The Grand Lodge K. of P. Delegates Return From Nanaimo—Other Notes.

The district meeting of the A.O.F. is being held at New Westminster.

At a meeting of Far West Lodge K. of P. held last evening, four applications for membership were received.

The different societies have commenced their series of winter socials, and in a few weeks the members will have lots to do in the evenings.

Next Friday evening Sullivan Lodge, A.O.U.W., will hold a social. All the present and past officers of the order in the city have been invited to be present.

On Thursday evening Acme Lodge, I.O.O.F., paid a fraternal visit to Dominion Lodge. After the disposal of routine business the visitors were entertained by the members of Dominion Lodge. A very pleasant evening was spent.

The regular meeting of Fernwood lodge was held last evening, when the following officers were installed for the ensuing year:—Geo. Snyder, N. G.; A. McIntosh, V. G.; T. Carter, Jr., secretary, and T. Carter, Sr., conductor. After the installation the members took part in a social.

The old lodge, A.O.U.W., of the province have been supplied with new certificates. The old ones were payable in Oregon and Washington, the new ones being under the Grand Lodge of British Columbia. The certificates are now in the hands of the recorders of the different lodges.

The Victoria delegates to the Grand Lodge K. of P., the meeting of which was held in Nanaimo, came home yesterday. They brought back the Grand Chancellership, Mr. J. M. Hughes being elected to that office, and also a splendid opinion of the Nanaimo Knights who did everything possible to make the visitors enjoy themselves. The delegates were driven around the city, and taken down into the mines. The banquet was also a very pleasant affair. The reports from the different lodges showed a very large increase in the membership of the order. The next meeting of the Grand Lodge will be held at New Westminster in June, 1893.

INSOLVENCY LAW DISCUSSED.

Mr. A. B. Gray's Motion at the Board of Trade Meeting Yesterday Afternoon.

A Committee Appointed to Confer With the Attorney-General—New Members.

Several matters were disposed of at the quarterly meeting of the Board of Trade after the TIMES went to press last evening.

Letters from the Quebec and Winnipeg boards of trade requested the B. C. board to help them in their endeavors to have better quarantine regulations adopted.

President Hall said the board had already had an extensive correspondence with the Government regarding the outbreak of smallpox and quarantine matters generally.

Mr. Prior said the Government had already decided to establish a first-class quarantine station, and Mr. Gamble had been asked to report on suitable sites. There are two sites under consideration, one at Albert Head and the other Williams Bay. The question was to obtain a place where wharves could be built and where ships could dock in safety.

Mr. Ker moved, seconded by Mr. Flummerfelt, that the scheme proposed by the Quebec board be endorsed. Carried.

Mr. Gray moved that the recommendations of the Winnipeg Board of Trade be adopted. Carried.

A letter from Chief Deasy, requesting that the board use its influence to obtain a fire boat to protect the wharves and buildings on the water front. He suggested that the steamer Earl be furnished with hose.

Col. Prior was certain that the Dominion Government would laugh at the idea of using the Earl as a fire boat. The city and Government would own her and the two interests would clash.

Mr. James Mitchell said if the city needed a fire boat, they should furnish it themselves.

Mr. J. Futcher suggested that the board urge the city to obtain a boat.

Col. Prior moved that the chief be notified that the board endorses his suggestion regarding the necessity of a fire boat, but they did not think it was a feasible scheme to use the Earl. The motion was carried.

The president asked the board to urge the Dominion Government to take advantage of the N. P. R. service to the Orient for the conveyance of mails.

Mr. Futcher moved, seconded by Mr. Davidge, that the president's suggestion be carried out. The motion was carried.

Mr. A. B. Gray moved that—Whereas the law in force in the province gives the first judgment creditors a first claim against the estate of debtors, and frequently to the entire exclusion of the claims of other creditors, and Whereas it is desirable that an equable distribution of insolvent estates be made;

Therefore be it resolved: That this Board is of opinion that in case of the insolvency of the debtor the execution creditor or creditors should rank upon his estate equally with other creditors whose claims are filed within thirty days from the date of such prior judgment; and further,

That in all cases where such debtor shall make an assignment within thirty days of such prior judgment, all monies levied upon an execution against the property of such debtor shall be recoverable from said judgment creditor for the general benefit of the debtor's estate, but the costs incurred in obtaining such judgment shall be first paid;

That the Boards of Trade at Nanaimo, New Westminster and Vancouver be asked to co operate with this Board in memorializing the Provincial Government to enact at the next session of Legislature a measure to give effect to the foregoing.

The mover said all knew that the Dominion Government was adverse to bringing forward an insolvency act. At the last meeting of the council an act that was to have been presented by the Montreal Board of Trade, was received. Somehow the act was never brought forward. He contended that it was in the interest of the merchants, both buyers and sellers, that some equitable distribution of insolvent estates should be made. If the Provincial Government cannot deal with the question, double efforts should be made to have an insolvent act passed by the Dominion Government.

Mr. A. C. Flummerfelt said it had occurred to him that the wholesale merchants of the province would suffer if the proposed act was passed. The similar laws in Quebec and Ontario were dead letters.

Mr. J. Steen, president of the Winnipeg Board of Trade, said he had sat at a hundred committee meetings to discuss this question. The resolution looked very fine. The merchants' relief act in Ontario is a humbug. The same is the case in Quebec and Manitoba, laws passed there being of no use whatever.

The resolution was referred to a committee composed of Messrs. A. B. Gray, J. H. Todd and E. A. McQuade, who are to confer with the Attorney-General. The same committee will deal with the following resolutions:

Moved by Mr. J. H. Todd and seconded by Mr. A. C. Flummerfelt, that whereas the present law permitting a witness to be summoned is open to abuse, be it resolved.

That in all cases where it appears to the presiding judge at any trial or enquiry held in the Supreme Court or County Court, or by any judge of either of said courts, that a witness has been summoned before the court without just cause or lawful excuse, or that the issue of service of such summons is an abuse of the process of the court, such judge may award to such witness, over and above the fees to which he is now by law entitled, such sum as he may think by way of compensation for the loss of time and injury such witness has sustained by having been improperly summoned; such sum to be recovered and enforced as a judgment according to the ordinary process of said court.

The following gentlemen were elected members of the board: Messrs. H. E. Counon, H. F. W. Behnsen, Robert Irving, Walter Morris, W. J. Anderson, J. B. Gordon, R. Robertson and Robert Ritter.

THE HOSPITAL DIRECTORS.

The Regular Business Meeting of the Board Held Last Evening.

Mr. Joshua Davies occupied the chair at a meeting of the Hospital Directors held last evening, at which the following directors were present: Messrs. G. H. Brown, C. Hayward, A. Wilson, W. M. Chudley, J. S. Yates, B. Gordon, J. Braden and G. Byrnes.

Mr. Monteith, administrator of intestate estates, wrote asking for some effects belonging to Martin Bennett, who died at the hospital. Referred to a committee.

A letter from the committee of the city council appointed to confer with the directors regarding the establishment of an infectious disease ward was received and filed.

The resident physician reported that the number of pay patients was on the increase, and the condition of the hospital good. A number of suggestions embodied in the report were referred to the committee of the month.

Miss G. Mouatt, Matron of the hospital, tendered her resignation. Referred to the committee of the month.

The matron's report on the nurse service was referred to the committee of the month, and the steward's regular report was received and filed.

The committee appointed to wait on the city council reported that they had laid the board's resolution, stating that no more infectious disease cases would be received at the hospital after the end of the present month, before the committee of the council. The mayor thought this was very short notice, and no conclusion was arrived at. During the conference the committee was asked by the members of the council if the directors would sell any portion of the hospital grounds. Also if the hospital would erect suitable buildings and take infectious disease cases in hand hereafter.

President Davies thought that with proper arrangements the hospital board could take charge of infectious cases hereafter. Suitable buildings could be erected on the adjoining property.

Chas. Hayward said there should be a thorough understanding between the board and the council about the matter.

After some further discussion the old committee, with Messrs. Hayward and Gordon, was instructed to have a further conference with the council on Monday.

The treasurer's monthly report was adopted, and the recommendation contained in it ordered to be carried out.

Mr. F. J. Austin wrote, offering to arrange for a concert for the benefit of the hospital. Referred to the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Mrs. McTavish, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, wrote regarding the proposed charity ball on the 26th inst.

A cordial vote of thanks was extended to Mr. John Dean for the suggestion made by him that the refund of improvement taxes be applied by the citizens to the hospital, and for his successful efforts in that direction.

The following resolution was also unanimously carried: "That Mr. H. M. Yates, our very efficient and painstaking secretary, be tendered a hearty vote of thanks by the board, etc., accompanied by a check for $100, in consideration of the many extra duties and other work so cordially done by him during the recent smallpox excitement."

Gibbon, the Historian, Speaks.

Gibbon says: "As long as mankind shall continue to bestow more liberal applause on their destroyers than on their benefactors, the thirst of military glory will ever be the vice of the most exalted characters."

The wise, prudent and right thinking men and women of Canada believe: "That while there is sufficient ignorance in the community, and the necessary number of foolish and gullible people to buy and consume all the trashy nostrums advertised as cures; so long will misery, suffering and disease continue to exist in our midst."

When the sick and ailing look carefully and intelligently for a medium of cure and healing, they use Paine's Celery Compound, a scientific prescription given to suffering humanity by one of the best physicians that ever lived.

Paine's Celery Compound, owing to its quick and marvellous cures in cases of nervousness, sleeplessness, dyspepsia, indigestion, rheumatism and neuralgia, has been raised to the highest pinnacle of fame. At the present time our best physicians prescribe it with confidence and pleasure. It is used by the very best Canadian people, who would scorn to buy any of the trashy remedies so extensively advertised. All have faith in Paine's Celery Compound, knowing it is honest, safe and powerful to cure.

St. Luke's, Cedar Hill.

On the 18th inst. (St. Luke's day) the parish church will be open from an early hour until 9 p.m. Besides the annual dedication this year the harvest thanksgiving will be united with the festival of the Patron Saint, and the services arranged so that all parishioners may be able to attend. The guild of St. Luke's will have a sale of work in the adjoining school room, and with their usual hospitality visitors cordially received. Bus arrangements made for city friends.

There is no Humbug About the Rigby waterproof garments. They are a sure protection in case of rain, and are useful as ordinary garments to be worn during the sunshine. They not only take the place of a rubber garment, without its disadvantages, but are comfortable garments made of elegant designs in tweeds and other cloths.

THE GREAT KING'S HIGHWAY.

An Illustration of the Difference Between the Right and the Wrong Road.

The Journey of the Christian Homeward in the Path of Rectitude.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—Another busy week of Dr. Talmage's preaching tour has just ended. After conducting services before immense audiences at Swansea, Exeter and Bristol, he preached four times in Plymouth to the largest religious gatherings ever witnessed in that city. Before leaving Plymouth the mayor, at a public meeting at which many clergymen were present, thanked the American preacher for the great good his sermons had produced in awakening the community. Dr. Talmage on the day of his departure was driven to the wharf and alighted at the top of the flight of stone steps down which the pilgrim fathers went when they embarked on the Mayflower to seek the New World.

The sermon selected for today is entitled "The King's Highway," the text chosen being Isaiah xxxv, 8-10: "And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called the way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those; the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein. No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon. It shall not be found there, but the redeemed shall walk there, and the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away."

There are thousands of people here this morning who want to find the right road. You sometimes see a person halting at crossroads, and you can tell by his looks that he wishes to ask a question as to what direction he had better take. And I stand in your presence this morning conscious of the fact that there are many of you here who realize that there are a thousand wrong roads, but only one right one, and I take it for granted that you have come in to ask which one it is. Here is one road that opens widely, but I have not much faith in it. There are a great many expensive tollgates scattered all along that way. Indeed at every rod you must pay in tears or pay in flagellations. On that road, if you get through it at all, you have to pay your own way, and since this differs so much from what I have heard in regard to the right way I believe it is the wrong way.

THE WRONG ROAD.

Here is another road. On either side of it are houses of sinful entertainment and invitations to come in and dine and rest, but from the looks of the people who stand on the piazza I am very certain that it is the wrong house and the wrong way. Here is another road. It is very beautiful and macadamized. The horses' hoofs clatter and ring, and they who ride over it spin along the highway until suddenly they find that the road breaks over an embankment, and they try to halt, and they see the bit in the mouth of the fiery steed and cry, "Whoa! whoa!" But it is too late, and—crash!—they go over the embankment. We shall turn this morning and see if we cannot find a different kind of a road.

You have heard of the Appian Way. It was three hundred and fifty miles long. It was twenty-four feet wide, and on either side the road was a path for foot passengers. It was made out of rocks cut in hexagonal shape and fitted together. What a road it must have been! Made of smooth, hard rock, three hundred and fifty miles long. No wonder that in the construction of it the treasures of a whole empire were exhausted. Because of invaders, and the elements and time—the old conqueror who tears up a road as he goes over it—there is nothing left of that structure except a ruin. But I have this morning to tell you of a road built before the Appian Way, and yet it is as good as when first constructed. Millions of souls have gone over it. Millions more will come.

The prophets and apostles, too,
Pursued this road while here below;
We therefore will, without dismay,
Still walk in Christ, the good old way.

"An highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called the way of holiness, the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those; the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein. No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon. It shall not be found there, but the redeemed shall walk there, and the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away!"

HIGHWAY TO HEAVEN.

First, this road of the text is the king's highway. In the diligence you dash over the Bernard pass of the Alps, mile after mile, and there is not so much as a pebble to jar the wheels. You go over bridges which cross chasms that make you hold your breath, under projecting rock, along by dangerous precipices, through tunnels adrip with the meltings of the glaciers, and perhaps for the first time learn the majesty of a road built and supported by government authority. Well, my Lord the King decided to build a highway from earth to heaven. It should span all the chasms of human wretchedness; it should tunnel all the mountains of earthly difficulty; it should be wide enough and strong enough to hold fifty thousand millions of the human race, if so many of them should ever be born. It should be blasted out of the "Rock of Ages" and cemented with the blood of the Cross and be lifted amid the shouting of angels and the execration of devils.

The King sent his Son to build that road. He put head and hand and heart to it, and after the road was completed waved his blistered hand over the way, crying "It is finished!" Napoleon paid fifteen million francs for the building of the Simplen road, that his cannon might go over for the devastation of Italy; but our King, at a greater expense, has built a road for a different purpose, that the banners of heavenly dominion might come down over it, and all the redeemed of earth travel up over it.

Being a king's highway, of course it is well built. [illegible] and crushed the passenger who attempted to cross them. But Christ the King would build no such thing as that. The work done, he mounts the chariot of his love, and multitudes mount with him, and he drives on and up the steep of heaven amid the plaudits of gazing worlds! The work is done—well done—gloriously done—magnificently done!

Still further, this road spoken of is a clean road. Many a fine road has become miry and foul because it has not been properly cared for, but my text says the unclean shall not walk on this one. Room on either side to throw away your sins. Indeed if you want to carry them along you are not on the right road. That bridge will break, those overhanging rocks will fall, the night will come down, leaving you at the mercy of the mountain bandits, and at the very next turn of the road you will perish. But if you are really on this clean road of which I have been speaking, then you will stop ever and anon to wash in the water that stands in the basin of the eternal rock. Aye, at almost every step of the journey you will be crying out, "Create within me a clean heart!"

If you have no such aspirations as that it proves that you have mistaken your way; and if you will only look up and see the finger board above your head you may read upon it the words, "There is a way that seemeth right unto man, but the end thereof is death." Without holiness no man shall see the Lord; and if you have any idea that you can carry along your sins, your lusts, your worldliness, and yet get to the end of the Christian race you are so awfully mistaken that, in the name of God, this morning I shatter the delusion.

Still further, the road spoken of is a plain road. "The wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein"—that is, if a man is three-fourths an idiot he can find this road just as well as if he were a philosopher. The imbecile boy, the laughing-stock of the street, and followed by a mob hooting at him, has only to knock once at the gate of heaven and it swings open, while there has been many a man who can lecture about pneumatics and chemistry, and tell the story of Faraday's theory of electrical polarization, and yet has been shut out of heaven. There has been many a man who stood in an observatory and swept the heavens with his telescope, and yet he has not been able to see the Morning Star.

Many a man has been familiar with all the higher branches of mathematics, and yet could not do the simple sum, "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" Many a man has been a fine reader of tragedies and poems, and yet could not "read his title clear to mansions in the skies." Many a man has botanized across the continent, and yet did not know the "Rose of Sharon and the Lily of the Valley." But if one shall come in the right spirit, asking the way to heaven, he will find it a plain way. The pardon is plain. The peace is plain. Everything is plain.

HOW TO GET ON.

He who tries to get on the road to heaven through the New Testament teaching will get on beautifully. He who goes through philosophical discussion will not get on at all. Christ says, "Come to me and I will take all your sins away, and I will take all your troubles away." Now what is the use of my discussing it any more? Is not that plain? If you wanted to go to London and I pointed you out a highway thoroughly laid out, would I be wise in detaining you by a geological discussion about the gravel you will pass over, or a physiological discussion about the muscles you will have to bring into play? No. After this Bible has pointed you the way to heaven is it wise for me to detain you with any discussion about the nature of the human will, or whether the atonement is limited or unlimited? There is the road—go on it. It is a plain way.

"This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners." And that is you, and that is me. Any little child here can understand this as well as I can. "Unless you become as a little child, you cannot see the kingdom of God." If you are saved it will not be as a philosopher, it will be as a little child. "Of such is the kingdom of heaven." Unless you get the spirit of little children you will never come out at their glorious destiny.

Still further; this road to heaven is a safe road. Sometimes the traveler in those ancient highways would think himself perfectly secure, not knowing there was a lion by the way burying his head deep between his paws, and then when the right moment came, under the fearful spring the man's life was gone and there was a mauled carcass by the roadside. But, says my text, "No lion shall be there." I wish I could make you feel this morning your entire security. I tell you plainly that one minute after a man has become a child of God he is as safe as though he had been ten thousand years in heaven. He may slip; he may slide; he may stumble; but he cannot be destroyed. Kept by the power of God, through faith unto complete salvation. Everlastingly safe.

REWARDS OF CHRISTIANITY.

The severest trial to which you can subject a Christian man is to kill him, and that is glory. In other words, the worst thing that can happen a child of God is heaven. The body is only the old slippers that he throws aside just before putting on the sandals of light. His soul, you cannot hurt it. No fires can consume it. No floods can drown it. No devils can capture it.

Firm and unmoved are they
Who rest their souls on God;
Fixed as the ground where David stood,
Or where the ark abode.

His soul is safe. His reputation is safe. Everything is safe. "But," you say, "suppose his store burns up?" Why, then, it will only be a change of investments from earthly to heavenly securities. "But," you say, "suppose his name goes down under the hoof of scorn and contempt?" The name will be so much brighter in glory. "Suppose his physical health fails?" God will pour into him the floods of everlasting health, and it will not make any difference. Earthly subtraction is heavenly addition. The tears of earth are the crystals of heaven. As they take rags and tatters and put them through the paper mill, and they come out beautiful white sheets of paper, so often the rags of earthly destitution, under the cylinders of death, come out a white scroll upon which shall be written eternal emancipation.

There was one passage of Scripture the force of which I never understood until one day at Chamounix, with Mont Blanc on one side and Montanvent on the other, I opened my Bible and read, "As the mountains are around about Jerusalem, so the Lord is around about them that fear him." The surroundings were an omnipotent commentary.

Though troubles assail, and dangers affright;
Though friends should all fail and foes all unite;
Yet one thing secures us, whatever betide,
The Scriptures assure us the Lord will provide.

A PLEASANT PATH.

Still further, the road spoken of is a pleasant road. God gives a bond of indemnity against all evil to every man that treads it. "All things work together for good to those who love God." No weapon formed against them can prosper. That is the bond, signed, sealed and delivered by the president of the universe. What is the use of your fretting, O child of God, about food? "Behold the fowls of the air; for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly father feedeth them." And will he take care of the sparrow, will he take care of the hawk, and let you die? What is the use of your fretting about clothes? "Consider the lilies of the field. Shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?" What is the use of worrying for fear something will happen to your home? "He blesseth the habitation of the just." What is the use of fretting lest you will be overcome of temptations? "God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it."

Oh, this King's highway! Trees of life on either side, bending over until their branches interlock any drop midway their fruit and shade. Houses of entertainment on either side the road for poor pilgrims. Tables spread with a feast of good things, and walls adorned with apples of gold in pictures of silver. I start out on this King's highway, and I find a harper, and I say, "What is your name?" The harper makes no response, but leaves me to guess, as, with his eyes toward heaven and his hand upon the trembling strings, this tune comes rippling in the air: "The Lord is my light and my salvation. Whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?"

I go a little farther on the same road and meet a trumpeter of heaven, and I say: "Haven't you got some music for a tired pilgrim?" And wiping his lip and taking a long breath, he puts his mouth to the trumpet and pours forth this strain, "They shall hunger no more, neither shall they thirst any more, neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat, for the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall lead them to living fountains of water, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

I go a little distance further on the same road and I meet a maiden of Israel. She has no harp, but she has cymbals. They look as if they had rusted from sea spray, and I say to the maiden of Israel, "Have you no song for a tired pilgrim?" And like the clang of victors' shields the cymbals clap as Miriam begins to discourse, "Sing ye to the Lord, for he has triumphed gloriously; the horse and the rider hath he thrown into the sea." And then I see a white robed group. They come bounding toward me, and I say, "Who are they? The happiest, and the brightest, and the fairest in all heaven—who are they?" And the answer comes, "These are they who came out of great tribulations, and had their robes washed and made white with the blood of the Lamb."

THE TERMINUS.

I pursue this subject only one step farther. What is the terminus? I do not care how fine a road you may put me on, I want to know where it comes out. My text declares it, "The redeemed of the Lord come to Zion." You know what Zion was? That was the king's palace. It was a mountain fastness. It was impregnable. And so heaven is the fastness of the universe. No howitzer has long enough range to shell those towers. Let all the batteries of earth and hell blaze away; they cannot break in those gates. Gibraltar was taken; Sebastopol was taken; Babylon fell; but those walls of heaven shall never surrender either to human or satanic besiegement. The Lord God Almighty is the defense of it. Great capital of the universe! Terminus of the King's highway!

Dr. Dick said that, among other things, he thought in heaven we should study chemistry and geometry and conic sections. Southey thought that in heaven he would have the pleasure of seeing Chaucer and Shakespeare. Now, Dr. Dick may have his mathematics for all eternity, and Southey his Shakespeare. Give me Christ and my old friends—that is all the Heaven I want, that is heaven enough for me. O garden of light, whose leaves never wither, and whose fruits never fail! O banquet of God, whose sweetness never palls the taste, and whose guests are kings forever! O city of light, whose walls are salvation, and whose gates are praise! O palace of rest, where God is the monarch and everlasting ages the length of his reign! O song louder than the surf beat of many waters, yet soft as the whisper of cherubim!

When my last wound is healed, when the last heartbreak is ended, when the last tear of earthly sorrow is wiped away, and when the redeemed of the Lord shall come to Zion, then let all the harpers take down their harps, and all the trumpeters take down their trumpets, and all across heaven there be chorus of morning stars, chorus of white robed victors, chorus of martyrs from under the throne, chorus of ages, chorus of worlds, and there be but one song sung, and but one name spoken, and but one throne honored—that of Jesus only.

STREETS AND DRAINS BY-LAWS.

TO THE EDITOR:—On Tuesday next, the 11th October, the approval or disapproval of the above by-laws will be asked of the ratepayers. It is to be hoped that as many as can will take interest enough in the city affairs to go to the polls and vote, and thereby express their honest opinions for or against in sufficient numbers to show that the result will be a true index of popular opinion. The proposed works are absolutely necessary to promote the immediate and future health and comfort of all the citizens of Victoria. Unless the surface drains are taken hold of and constructed in a proper manner, the cess pools and open ditches that are now so much complained of in all parts of the city must continue as they are, an unsavory and unwholesome presence to all for a long time to come. At any rate, the work must be done very soon if not now. I therefore believe it will be true economy, and for the best interests of the city, that the work be commenced at once and carried to completion. Consequently, on the day of polling I shall cast my vote and influence in favor of the by-laws.

Poisoned by Scrofula

Is the sad story of many lives made miserable through no fault of their own. Scrofula is more especially than any other a hereditary disease, and for this simple reason: Arising from impure and insufficient blood, the disease locates itself in the lymphatics, which are composed of white tissues; there is a period of foetal life when the whole body consists of white tissues, and therefore the unborn child is especially susceptible to this dreadful disease. But there is a remedy for scrofula, whether hereditary or acquired. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by its powerful effect on the blood, expels all trace of the disease and gives to the vital fluid the quality and color of health. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not accept any substitute.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

TO THE EDITOR:—I have been in business in this city for a number of years, and have never had the pleasure of a call by the inspector of weights and measures. How am I to know if I am cheating myself or the public. There have been of late numerous complaints made against certain stores by customers, some giving more weight than others. Surely it is not the store-keeper's fault if he depends on his weights and measures, which he has had in use for years, and has no means of testing their accuracy. In other cities the inspectors make calls when least expected, and examine these matters fully. That is what they are paid for, but it would seem to be very different here, as one has to hunt these well paid officials up, and acquaint them with what they are paid to find out for themselves. If other matters take up all their time, we must find inspectors who will try to inspect. STOREKEEPER.

TEXADA ISLAND.

An Expert Visits the Mining Claims and is Favorably Impressed.

Last Friday Capt. Bigney, of the schooner Adela la Dora, left Nanaimo for Texada Island, carrying J. W Sutherland, mining broker, of Fairhaven, and A. Raper, secretary of the Texada Gold and Silver Mining Company and Minerva Mining and Marble Company. They were favored with a south-east gale and anchored at the north end of Texada in an eight hours' run. Next morning the gale having spent itself, they set sail and landed at the company's landing at 10 a. m. After a really rustic dinner of venison, etc., the two parties named, along with the company's manager, visited part of the company's property during the afternoon and some other claims. Mr. Sutherland was surprised at the favorable appearance of the work done. Next morning other claims were visited, occupying the whole day from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., making a total of twenty mining locations visited, and of 15 miles of travel through the island, as the claims lay back from the seacoast quite a distance in many cases. Mr. Sutherland expresses himself as well satished with his visit, and speaks quite encouragingly of the properties. He took a large quantity of samples from the different claims, amongst which are several pretty specimens of gold ore showing gold plainly to the naked eye. He also has washed the pulverised rock and panned out gold with the gold pan while there, and he considers that the district is as favorable as he could have wished for in a new camp. Of course he is rather reticent when visited by reporters, yet on the whole he speaks very favorably regarding the island. Mr. Sutherland and Mr. Raper returned Thursday morning and Mr. Sutherland will not leave Nanaimo until Sunday. Rumor has it that there is some arrangement being arrived at by Mr. Sutherland and the owners of several of the claims, and that machinery will shortly be placed on the ground to further develop the properties there. Mr. Sutherland will carry off with him rough sketch plans of the properties visited and showing the development work done. Undoubtedly great help could be rendered the claim owners if the Government would only spend a few dollars in opening up some trails, so as to enable the owners to get in their supplies. Work will be carried on all winter, and the expense of packing supplies on the backs of packers through rough woods is terribly expensive to the prospecting companies. The short distance from point of shipment on navigable waters has struck Mr. Sutherland most forcibly as being a very favorable factor for this camp.

The Queen in Scotland.

A correspondent at Balmoral learns of many graceful actions on the part of Her Majesty. On the confines of the little estate lives an old retainer who had for many years been familiar to Her Majesty during her visits to Scotland. On arriving at Balmoral the Queen learnt that this poor old fellow had been stricken down by a serious illness. Not a long time elapsed ere Her Majesty's little pony chaise had stopped at the cottage door, and she had enquired as to the progress of the sufferer. Since then baskets of fruit have daily found their way to the cottage, the gift in each case being accompanied by an enquiry. This correspondent noted the Queen a few days since stop a raw Scotchman on the road, and a few moments later he learnt that her purpose was to enquire after a sick child.

Resolution of Regret.

At a meeting of the Victoria West lodge, I.O.G.T., held last evening, a resolution was passed, expressing the regret of the lodge for the loss sustained by the death of Byron V. Leigh. The members of the lodge will attend the funeral to-morrow afternoon.
